Griglione, a sophomore from Alexandria, VA, who took last year off to train for the Olympics, led Stanford in scoring at the 1989 NCAA Championships. Griglione won the 400 IM with a Stanford school record and new Pac-10 record 4:12.29, breaking her own record of 4:16.68 set in 1987. She also took second in the 200 fly (1:57.99) to set another Stanford record and added a second in the 200 IM (2:00.17).

Anderson, a sophomore from Moreno Valley, CA, set two Pac-10 Championships meet records this year in winning three events for the Bears. Anderson set meet records in the 500 free (4:43.41) and 1650 free (16:13.81), in addition to winning the 200 free (1:48.19). Formerly at Texas, Quick has now won six consecutive national titles in women's swimming, the first five coming with the Longhorns.
