STREAKING STANFORD: The Cardinal is going after a Conference record-breaking ten consecutive Pac-10 team titles...The Stanford streak began in 1982 when the Cardinal edged UCLA by 11 points...USC and Stanford share the record, both having won nine consecutive titles...USC has won 17 Pac-10 team titles over the years, Stanford nine, California and UCLA two each.

LET'S TAKE A LOOK: With three Pac-10 teams ranked ahead of the Cardinal, it looks to be anyone's race...A major factor will be who decides to shave, and who decides to wait for the NCAA's...A team-by-team breakdown follows...

ARIZONA: Leading the No.15 Wildcat team are Martusz Podkoscielny, Steve Herron, and Jeff Utsch, an exceptional group of distance swimmers...Junior Podkoscielny, an '88 Polish Olympian, was second in the 500 and third in the 1650 freestyle at the 1990 NCAA...Herron, another junior, leads Arizona in the 1650 (15:05.83) and the 400 IM (3:52.75)...Utsch enters the Championships with season bests of 1:38.49 in the 200 free and 15:24.62 in the 1650...Sprinter Seth Pepper has had an impressive season recording a squad-leading time of 20.05 in the 50 free and an Arizona school record 47.87 in the 100 butterfly...Sophomore Brad Bachults has been equally impressive, recording a school record and PR in the 100 breast (54.66) as well as the 200 breast (1:59.27) at the Texas Invitational last December...In coach Frank Busch's first season at Arizona, the 'Cats finished sixth at last year's Conference meet, and were tenth in Indianapolis at the NCAA Championships.

SWIMMING PACIFIC 10 CHAMPIONSHIPS

Stanford Gets 10th Title in Row

By THERESA MUNOZ
TIMES STAFF WRITER

Stanford capped its worst dual meet season in history with a record 10th consecutive Pacific 10 Championship Saturday night at Belmont Plaza in Long Beach. The Cardinal, who went 2-6 during the season, surpassed USC's record of nine titles from 1961-69.

In compiling 877.5 points, Stanford won eight of 18 events. Despite being shut out for an event title, UCLA edged California for runner-up honors, 561.5 points to 561.0. USC was fourth with 485.5 points, followed by Arizona State (425), Arizona (373) and Washington (210.5).

"I really wanted to win 10 in a row," Stanford's 12th-year Coach Skip Kenney said. "It was very important because of the respect I have for [Coach] Peter Daland and USC. I tried to focus on the NCAA's but once we got to Belmont Plaza we couldn't help talking about being part of the history of the best conference in the U.S."

Led by freshman Brian Retterer, Stanford won five of the top six places in the 200-yard backstroke. Retterer, who finished in one minute, 46.48 seconds, set a meet record in the preliminaries when he touched in 1:45.15.

Stanford also struck gold in the 200 butterfly when sophomore Brad Budney swam a 1:46.19 to edge Cal's Mark Henderson.

USC earned its only first place when senior Erik Ran beat Arizona State Olympian Troy Dalbey in the 100 freestyle in 43.95.

Texas men win fourth straight swimming title

Host Texas, led by Shaun Jordan, became the fourth school to win four consecutive NCAA Division I Men's Swimming and Diving Championships team titles by outdistancing Stanford March 28-30 for the second year in a row.

Texas amassed 476 points to Stanford's 420 to join Indiana, Michigan and Southern California as four-time defending champions. Jordan was the catalyst for Texas' victory, winning five gold medals and a bronze en route to scoring 55 points for the Longhorns. The senior attributed his success to coach Eddie Reese.

"When I came here I wasn't good, I wasn't even all right," Jordan said. "But Ed is very individual with all the swimmers even when you come in as a freshman. That's why we have a close-knit team under Eddie. He is responsible for what happens."

Reese, who got the traditional victory dunking in the Texas Swim Center after the Longhorns won the title, has led Texas to five team titles. Texas became the fifth school to win five or more titles, joining Ohio State (11), Michigan (9), Southern California (9) and Indiana (6).

"Every year, you start all over again," Reese said. "I'm happy for this team. Sometimes you feel the efforts are more important than the end results. We got very good effort."

Texas won four of five relays in the three-day meet. Texas' 200-yard freestyle relay team of Jordan, Brett Stone, Alex Wittig and Doug Dickinson set an American and NCAA record with a time of 1:18.32.

In notable individual performances, Tennessee's Melvin Stewart set an American record in the 200-yard butterfly. His time of 1:41.78 beat the mark of 1:42.60 set in 1987 by Stanford's Pablo Morales. Florida's Martin Zubero, who was named Division I swimmer of the year, broke his U.S. open and NCAA record in the 200-yard backstroke with a 1:42.88 clocking to eclipse his 1990 mark of 1:43.40. Zubero's coach, Skip Foster, was named Division I swimming coach of the year.

Jason Rhodes, winner of the three-meter diving competition and runner-up in the platform-diving event, earned the Division I diver-of-the-year award. His victory in the three-meter event was Texas' first victory in diving competition since 1984.

PACIFIC-10 CONFERENCE MEN'S SWIMMING HONORS

In a vote by the Conference coaches, USC's Dave Wharton has been named the Pac-10 Swimmer of the Year for a record fourth consecutive season, while Stanford coach Skip Kenney has been named Pac-10 Coach of the Year for the seventh time, Commissioner Thomas C. Hansen announced today.

Wharton is the first swimmer to win the Pac-10 Swimmer of the Year for four straight years. Last month in Austin, Texas, Wharton won the NCAA 400-yard individual medley title, becoming only the sixth swimmer in NCAA history to win a single event in consecutive years. The junior from Warminster, Penn., was also runner-up in the 200-yard IM, fifth in the 200 fly and helped the Trojans to a second place and fourth place finish in the 400 and 800 yard freestyle relays respectively. Wharton is the current NCAA and American record holder in the 400-yard IM (3:42.23) and is the American record holder in the 200-yard IM (1:44.70).

Kenney, who was also Pac-10 Coach of the Year in 1983 and 1985-1989, led the Cardinal to their tenth straight top four team finish at the NCAA Championship. Kenney led the Cardinal to their tenth straight Pac-10 team title, beating the record of nine straight, held by USC, which won the Conference from 1961 to 1969. Kenney was an assistant coach for the U.S. Olympic swimming team in 1984 and 1988 and in 1987 served as the combined men's and women's head coach of the United States Pan American Games team.
