MEN WHO ARE DIVING IN ... The story here is also about domination. . . But, Senior Brian Early of USC is redshirting after winning two of the three events last season. . . PAC-10 STANDINGS

	Pac	Overall
Stanford	6-0	9-0
Arizona State	3-2	6-2
California	3-2	8-3
USC	2-3	8-4
Arizona	2-3	3-3
Washington	0-0	8-4
UCLA	0-5	2-6

MAKING A SPLASH . . . No. 9 ARIZONA has senior All-Americans Seth Pepper in the freestyle and butterfly plus Robert Abernethy in the breaststroke along with Brad Bachulis to anchor a strong team this season. . . Last season Pepper was a top-5 finisher in the 50- and 100-yd freestyle while capturing the 100-yd butterfly title. . . Keep an eye on freshman Chad Carvin in both the 500- and 1650-yd freestyle. . . The 200 medley relay and 400 freestyle relay teams with both Pepper and Abernethy have also qualified for the NCAAs where the Wildcats finished fifth in 1992.

Coach Ron Johnson was looking for his No. 8 ARIZONA STATE team to finish as one of the top three Pac-10 teams and it looks like the chances of this happening are pretty good as the Sun Devils have lost only to Stanford and California this season in dual meets. . . With Emmanuel Nascimento (freestyle), David Holderback (back), Simon Percy (IMs) and Christiano Michelena (free) all under NCAA consideration times, the 'Devils will be a big factor.

With a goal of finishing better than the year before, No. 6 CALIFORNIA faces the task of having to upset Stanford in order to gain first place. . . In dual meet action, the Golden Bears weren't able to catch the Cardinal, but now it's up to Par Lindstrom in the sprint freestyle, Rob Darzynkiewicz and freshman Kurt Eldridge in the distance free to reach that goal. . . Helping out will be another freshman, Ugur Taner, with Martin Herrmann in the butterfly. . . Alex Marcek was last year's 200 breast champion, Marek Rains is a Cal record holder in the backstroke and Martin Herrmann has the record in the 200 fly.

As the 11-time Pacific-10 Conference defending Champion, No. 1 STANFORD is also out to defend its national title. . . With the likes of Olympian Joe Hudephol, the Cardinal possibly could not help dominate. . . Hudephol and the freestyle are synonymous, but 1992 NCAA 50 free champion Erik Maurer is looking to defend his title. . . Not a two man team, Derek Weatherford in both the back and IMs, plus Tyler Mayfield in the breast and Ray Carey in the butterfly, help combine for a deep Cardinal team.

Although ranked No. 16, UCLA has had a tough time with Pac-10 opponents this season, having gone 0-5. . . With eight freshmen, things are looking up. Mike Andrews set both a UCLA and freshman record in the 100- and 200-yd backstroke and along the way met NCAA qualifying time standards. . . The young don't dominator as junior Mike Picotte has the freestyle and butterfly at hand while seniors Greg Schaffer (breast) and Brian Kurza (free) are also in the swim.

Mike Merrell and John Steel were both top-5 finishers at the 1992 Conference championships for No. 14 USC and this season they will again be called upon to score for Troy. . . Merrell will be in the butterfly and Steel in the freestyle, plus anchoring four relay teams. . . Other Trojans diving in are: Jeff Ong 100-, 500- and 1650-yd freestyle, Jason Stelle (backstroke) and Mike Mason in the breaststroke. . . With Brian Earley redshirting from diving this season, USC needs to reach qualifying times in order to equal or better 1992's seventh place NCAA finish.

Having yet to face a Pac-10 opponent this season, carrying the load for the Huskies will be Kyle Kimball. He has won races in the IM, fly, and free this season. . . Unfortunately for WASHINGTON, an individual can only enter three individual events.

1993 NCAA CHAMPIONSHIPS . . . To be held Thursday, March 25 - Saturday, March 27 in Indianapolis, Ind. . . STANFORD is the defending champion while UCLA, CALIFORNIA, ARIZONA, and USC finished 3, 4, 5, and 7, respectively, in 1992. . . Pac-10 swimmers, divers or teams had at least one finisher in the top three for 18 of the 21 events. . . Since 1961, the Pac-10 has won 16 team titles while STANFORD has split the last eight, 4-4, with Texas. . . With 270 previous individual champions hailing from the Pac, a number have already qualified based on the time standards listed below.

1992 PAC-10 CHAMPIONSHIPS . . . For 11 years, STANFORD has won the Conference title, and last year was no different. . . In only two events did the Cardinal men not finish in the top five in 1992. . . Brian Retterer, Jeff Rouse and Josh Mikesell were 1-2-3 in the 100- and 200 -yd backstroke, Chas Morton in the IMs, Tylor Mayfield in the breaststroke and first places finishes in the 400 free, 200 and 400 medley relays all added up for the victory.

CALIFORNIA ended up second behind the victories of the 800 free relay team and Scott Jaffe's 200 free victory along with Alex Marcek in the 200 breast. . . UCLA did not have an individual win an event, but solid performances by the likes of Michael Picotte (freestyle), Andrea Cecchi and Greg Schaffer in the breaststroke, plus Sean Easton in the 400 IM was good enough for third overall . . . USC got fourth in part to the diving sweep of Brian Earley (1 and 3 meter) and Arsen Djavadian (platform), but in the lanes was Robert Pufleb winning the 100 free, Greg Larson and Gary Anderson in the IMs, plus the two second place finishes of the 400 and 800 free relays.

1992-93 PAC-10 SWIMMING HONORS

WALNUT CREEK, Calif. – In a vote by Conference coaches, ARIZONA men's swimming coach Frank Busch and swimmer Seth Pepper were named Men's Coach and Athlete of the Year, respectively, while WASHINGTON women's coach Earl Ellis and STANFORD Olympian Janel Jorgensen named for the women, Commissioner Tom Hansen announced today.

Pepper, a four time All-American, is coming off NCAA championships in the 100 fly (46.51) and as the third leg in the 200 medly relay (1:27.01) and gains his first Athlete of the Year honor. The senior from Salem, Ore., also finished third in the 100 free (43.44). At the Pac-10 championships he finished eight in the 100 fly and fourth in the 100 free.

Busch wins his second Coach of the Year honor, but this time for the men after being honored for the women in 1991. For the fourth consecutive season, he has seen the Wildcat men improve nationally by finishing a spot higher (fourth) from the previous year, while his women's team was sixth. At the NCAAs, he also saw his second individual national champion, in Pepper, and his team winning the 200 medly relay.

Jorgensen, a senior from Ridgefield, Conn., won three NCAA individual championships while she also swam the third leg on three relay championship teams (200 free, 800 free, 400 medley) as she becomes the fifth Cardinal to be honored as Athlete of the Year. Besides winning the 100 and 200 fly and the 200 IM in Minneapolis, she had earlier broken the Pac-10 record in the 200 fly during the Conference Championships while also winning the 100 fly and 200 IM.

Ellis finished his 24th year at UW - 24th as men's coach, 17th as women's - receives his first honor as Pac-10 Coach of the Year. This season, his club finished 13-2 in dual meets, which carried his career record to 154-20-2, and totalled 518.5 points at the Pac-10 Championships for seventh place. A coach of over 40 All-Americans, he has guided the Huskies as the dominant swimming force in the Pacific Northwest.

Stanford men take I swimming title in easy fashion

Stanford jumped out to an early lead and was never threatened in winning its second consecutive Division I Men's Swimming and Diving team title March 25-27 in Indianapolis.

Second-place Michigan won four individual events and featured three of the meet's seven top point scorers, but could not match heavily favored Stanford's superior depth. Seven Cardinal swimmers scored top-three points in 10 events and Stanford also cruised to three relay victories, including two during the meet's opening day, in building a comfortable point margin over the Wolverines. Texas finished third in the meet, followed by Arizona and UCLA. Auburn, California, Tennessee, Florida and Southern Methodist rounded out the top 10.

Tyler Mayfield, Derek Weatherford and Ray Carey reaped individual event titles for the Cardinal. Mayfield battled Michigan's Eric Wunderlich in both breaststroke events, capturing the 100-yard race and finishing second in the 200-yard event, while Weatherford traded victories with Tennessee's Tripp Schwenk in the backstrokes, winning the 100-yard event. Carey dethroned Iowa's Rafal Szukala in the 200-yard butterfly.

Greg Burgess of Florida established two American records, lowering his own national best to 1:43.52 in the 200-yard individual medley and taking nearly a second off David Wharton's 1988 record at Southern California in the 400-yard individual medley.

The meet's only other record was set by David Fox of North Carolina State, who swam the 50-yard freestyle in 19.14 seconds, besting Matt Biondi's six-year-old mark of 19.15. Fox had entered the last two championships with the fastest time in the event but managed only a consolation final finish. He placed 15th last year.

Michigan's Marcel Wouda was a double winner, sweeping the distance freestyles over Matt Hooper of Texas. The sophomore is the heir apparent to longtime title holder Artur Wojdat of Iowa, who won four 500-yard freestyle crowns and three 1,650-yard freestyle titles from 1989 through 1992. Wouda also finished second behind Burgess in the 400-yard individual medley and swam the lead leg in Michigan's winning 800-yard freestyle relay to tie Dean Panaro of Miami (Florida) as the meet's top point scorer.

Panaro took two of the three diving events, winning his third one-meter title and adding a victory in the three-meter event. He finished second in platform diving behind Minnesota's Pat Bogart.

Other individual winners included Michigan's Gustavo Borges, who won his second straight 100-yard freestyle crown; Josh Davis of Texas, who unseated Borges in the 200-yard freestyle; and Seth Pepper of Arizona in the 100-yard butterfly. Pepper also helped the Wildcats edge Stanford in the 200-yard medley relay. Last year, the Cardinal won an unprecedented five relay events.

CLEVELAND, OH -- Fifteen finalists for the Fourth Annual NACDA/Disney Scholar-Athlete Postgraduate Scholarships were announced today by the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics (NACDA) and the Walt Disney Company.

The finalists were chosen from 240 nominees from all sports other than football. Earlier this year, 20 football finalists were selected -- 10 from Division I-A institutions and 10 from non-Division I-A institutions.

These 35 finalists will now be reviewed by NACDA's Blue Ribbon Committee which consists of some of the top figures in the athletic world. The Committee will review the finalists and select 10 winners who will each receive a $5,000 grant to be used towards postgraduate studies, a total of $50,000 in scholarships, funded by the Walt Disney Company. The winners will receive their awards at NACDA's 28th annual Convention, June 6-9, in San Diego, California. The NACDA/Disney Scholar-Athlete Awards Luncheon will be held on Monday, June 7.

MEN'S SWIMMING AND DIVING

STANFORD made it an even dozen as it again won the Pac-10 title before going on to claim its second consecutive NCAA crown, and fifth since 1985. Three other teams would finish in the Top-10 at the NAAs, while another two finished in the Top-20.

Depth again proved to be the edge for the Cardinal, as Tyler Mayfield, Derek Weatherford and Ray Carey were top finishers in the breaststroke, backstroke and butterfly, respectively. Mayfield was 1-2 in the 100 and 200 breast after a Pac-10 title in the 100. Weatherford also scored a 1-2 as he was the first to touch the wall in the 100 back and second in the 200 back to Tennessee's Tripp Schwenk (who had finished second to Weatherford in the 100) after winning both events at the Pac-10s. For Carey, the 200 fly was all his in 1:41.01.

ARIZONA's Seth Pepper claimed the NCAA 100 fly and providing the third link in the championship 200 medley relay (1:27.01). The senior from Salem, Ore., also finished third in the NCAA 100 free, and at the Pac-10 Championships was eighth in the 100 fly and fourth in the 100 free. For his triumphs, he became only the second Wildcat to be tabbed Pac-10 Swimmer of the Year.

The Pac-10 Coach of the Year also saw a 'Cat, as Frank Busch won his second such honor after picking up the women's vote in 1991. For the fourth consecutive season, Arizona's men improved its national finish, with this year's squad coming in at fourth. Pepper became Busch's second national champion while the 200 medley relay team claimed the title by edging Stanford, 1:27.01 to 1:27.06.
