WOMEN'S SWIMMING & DIVING

After dominating all five relays and winning eight individual titles, STANFORD won its eighth consecutive Pac-10 title and moved on to claim its third consecutive NCAA crown, and fifth in 12 years. In addition, five other Pac-10 schools rounded out the Top-15.

At the NCAA meet, held in Indianapolis, Ind., the Pac-10 won 10 events with Stanford taking five, USC four and ARIZONA STATE one. Jenny Thompson (100 free, 100 fly) and Lea Loveless (100 back) were the individual medalists for the Cardinal, which also won the 200 and 400 free relays. Sun Devil Beata Kaszuba dazzled the crowd with an electrifying performance in the 100-yard backstroke, breaking the U.S. Open, NCAA and Pac-10 records with a swim of 1:00.46.

Pac-10 Swimmer of the Year Kristine Quance won three events at the NCAA's, including the 200 and 400 individual medleys, and the 200 breast. At the Pac-10 meet, Quance set an NCAA and Pac-10 record in the 200 breast with a time of 2:09.88. Quance also won the 100 breast at the Pac-10 meet, while Stanford's Thompson set a meet record in the 50 free (:22.50) and teammate Loveless notched two meet marks (100 back — 53.00/200 back — 1:54.13).

Tim Hill was named the Pac-10 Coach of the Year after guiding the Sun Devils to a second-place finish — their best in school history. A tribute to its depth, ASU finished second while winning only two events — Chris Jeffrey in the 400 individual medley and Amy Palmer in the platform diving competition.

UCLA senior diver Kristen Walls was named Pac-10 Diver of the Year after winning the Conference one-meter and three-meter dives, while ASU's Ward O'Connell was named Diving Coach of the Year after guiding Palmer to the league platform title, along with two second-place finishes for Amy Garner.
