MEET THEME . . . New faces should dominate the sprints and the individual medley, while the old guard should control the distance races, the butterfly and the backstroke . . . With six individual champions returning, STANFORD is looking to win its 13 consecutive Pac-10 title . . . The Pac-10 also has six of the top 11 teams in the College Swimming Coaches Association of America Top 25 . . . A brief look at each class:

DISTANCE FREESTYLE . . . ARIZONA STATE junior Cristiano Michelena leads a large group of returners from last season's Pac-10 Championship . . . Michelena won both the 500 and the 1650, holding off Dan Kanner of Stanford by a little more than a second in the 500. Kanner, a junior, was also runner-up in the 200 to teammate Joe Hudepohl . . . Hudepohl, a sophomore, will be pushed in the 200 by both Kanner and Michelena, as well as USC junior John Steel, USC sophomore Jim Wells and Stanford sophomore Eric Diehl . . . In the 500, Kanner and Hudepohl will be chasing Michelena, along with Stanford sophomore Mike Covert and ARIZONA STATE senior Jason Blaylock . . . In the 1650, Michelena's toughest competition will come from Covert, CALIFORNIA sophomore Kurt Eldridge and Cal senior Christian Ballard.

FREESTYLE SPRINTS . . . Only two of the top six sprinters in both the 50 and the 100 from last year's meet return, so the field should be wide open . . . The top swimmer is Stanford senior Bill Schell, who finished third in both the 50 and the 100 . . . Hudepohl of Stanford was second in the 100, while UCLA senior Kyle Depold placed fourth in the 100.

- MORE -

BACKSTROKE . . . In his final Pac-10 meet, returning NCAA and Pac-10 champion Derek Weatherford of Stanford will try to defend his title in the 100 . . . Last year, the senior held off teammate Trip Zedlitz to win the 100, but Zedlitz, also a senior, is back to challenge, along with USC junior Jason Stelle, ASU senior Simon Percy and UCLA sophomore Michael Andrews . . . The field in the 200 is stacked with experience as well . . . Weatherford is the defending champ, but ASU senior David Holderbach finished just .08 of a second behind him in 1993 . . . Wells, Percy and Stelle should also contend in the 200.

BREASTSTROKE . . . The breaststroke is another area where newcomers may be able to make some headway . . . Only three of the top six finishers in both the 100 and 200 return from the 1993 meet . . . The marquee names are a trio of Stanford swimmers, including seniors Tyler Mayfield and Joseph Freitag and junior Kurt Grote . . . Mayfield won the 100, and went on to win the 1993 NCAA crown in this event, while Grote took the 200 . . . USC junior Marc Fairon is another swimmer to watch.

BUTTERFLY . . . The butterfly is probably the Pac-10's strongest event with the top six finishers in both the 100 and the 200 returning from the 1993 meet . . . California sophomore Ugur Taner is the defending Pac-10 200 champ, while Stanford junior Ray Carey is the defending NCAA 200 champ . . . Both are back in 1994, along with Stanford senior Eddie Parenti, UCLA sophomore Randy Hartley, ASU junior Eduardo Piccinini and USC senior Frank Wattles . . . Piccinini is the defending 100 champion, but will be pushed by Parenti, Stanford's Zedlitz, Taner, USC junior Mike Merrell and California senior Martin Herrmann.

INDIVIDUAL MEDLEY . . . The Pac-10 will be crowning a new 400 IM champion after the graduation of Stanford's Chas Morton . . . UCLA senior Dan O'Keefe is top returner in this event . . . Other swimmers to keep an eye on include ASU junior Renato Ramalho and Carey of Stanford . . . Stanford's Zedlitz is the defending 200 champ, but will have to fend off California's Herrmann and Percy of ASU.

RELAYS . . . Stanford swept all five relays last season and went on to NCAA victories in the 200 and 400 Free and the 400 Medley . . . ARIZONA was fourth in the 200 Medley at last season's Pac-10 meet, but won the NCAA title . . . UCLA was second in four Pac-10 relays in 1993 . . . WASHINGTON's best showing at the 1993 Pac-10 meet was a sixth place finish in the 200 Medley Relay.

LAST YEAR . . . STANFORD won handily over second-place UCLA, and went on to claim the NCAA crown . . . The Cardinal won seven-of-13 individual events and all five relays . . . UCLA won two events and had a strong showing in the relays to finish second, while ASU won three events and finished third . . . CALIFORNIA won one event and finished fourth . . . USC edged ARIZONA for fifth, while WASHINGTON was seventh . . . Here is a look at last year's point totals, plus a list of the individual defending champions and their times:

USC'S QUANCE, STANFORD'S WEATHERFORD AND CARVIN OF ARIZONA NAMED PAC-10 SWIMMERS OF THE YEAR, COACHES HILL, BALLATORE AND KENNEY HONORED

WALNUT CREEK, Calif. – In a vote of Pac-10 Conference coaches, USC freshman Kristine Quance has been named the 1993-94 Pacific-10 Conference Women's Swimmer of the Year, while ARIZONA sophomore Chad Carvin and STANFORD senior Derek Weatherford have been named the 1993-94 Pacific-10 Conference Men's Co-Swimmers of the Year, Commissioner Tom Hansen announced today.

UCLA head coach Ron Ballatore and Stanford's Skip Kenney were named Pac-10 Men's Co-Coaches of the Year, while Tim Hill of ARIZONA STATE was named Women's Coach of the Year.

Quance, from Northridge, Calif., lived up to the high expectations that followed her to USC as the 1993 High School Swimmer of the Year. She set an NCAA record in the 200-yard breaststroke at the Pac-10 Meet with a time of 2:09.88. She won that event and the 100-yard breaststroke at the Pac-10 meet and went on to win three events at the NCAA Meet.

In total this season, Quance set one NCAA record, one NCAA Meet record (200-yard breast/2:10.69), two Pac-10 records (200-yard breast, 100-yard breast/1:01.28) and five USC records.

Carvin, from Laguna Hills, Calif., became the first American since 1985 to win both the 500-yard freestyle (4:11.59) and the 1650-yard freestyle (14:34.91) at the NCAA Meet. He also established new American, NCAA and Pac-10 records in the two events, to become the first person to hold both records simultaneously since 1983.

Carvin won the 500 free at the Pac-10 Meet (4:20.62), but finished fourth in the 1650 free (15:14.44).

Weatherford, from Ft. Meyers, Fla., finished his Stanford career on a high note by winning the 200-yard backstroke at the NCAA Meet, and winning the 100- and 200-yard backstroke and the 200-yard individual medley at the Pac-10 Meet. He is a member of the highest scoring senior class in NCAA Meet history.

After coaching the Bruins to a second-place finish at the Pac-10 Meet, Ballatore was named Coach of the Year, along with Kenney, for the fourth time in his career, and the first time since 1984. UCLA, which has said it will drop swimming as a varsity sport after this season, was 6-6 in dual meets in 1994, and finished 12th at the NCAA Meet.

In 16 years as the Bruins' mentor, Ballatore coached 63 Pac-10 champions and 14 NCAA champions. He guided UCLA to the 1982 NCAA title, and his teams never finished lower than fourth at the Pac-10 Meet. He has a 109-51 career dual meet record.

Kenney guided Stanford to its third consecutive NCAA crown, and sixth since 1985. He also captured an unprecedented 13th-consecutive Pac-10 championship. This is Kenney's ninth career Coach of the Year award. He is a five-time NCAA Coach of the Year, as well.

UCLA'S KRISTEN WALLS, BRIAN EARLEY OF USC NAMED PAC-10 DIVERS OF THE YEAR, COACHES RICK EARLEY OF USC, WARD O'CONNELL OF ARIZONA STATE HONORED

WALNUT CREEK, Calif. – In a vote of Pac-10 Conference coaches, UCLA senior Kristen Walls has been named the 1993-94 Pacific-10 Conference Women's Diver of the Year, while USC senior Brian Earley has been named the 1993-94 Pacific-10 Conference Men's Diver of the Year, Commissioner Tom Hansen announced today.

USC head coach Rick Earley was named Pac-10 Men's Coach of the Year, while Ward O'Connell of ARIZONA STATE was named Pac-10 Women's Coach of the Year.

Walls, from San Diego, Calif., won the one-meter and three-meter competitions at the Pac-10 Meet. She is the Conference's first three-time one-meter champion and is also a two-time three-meter champ. Walls is a four-year All-American.

Brian Early, from Mission Viejo, Calif., dominated the Pac-10 meet, winning the one-meter, the three-meter and the platform competitions. He also won the NCAA platform title and finished second in the one-meter and three-meter.

A four-time All-American, Brian Earley rebounded from a career-threatening back injury, which forced him to redshirt the 1992-93 season, to claim his third Pac-10 one-meter and platform titles and his second Pac-10 three-meter crown.

Brian Earley's father, Rick Earley, in his 14th year at USC, was named Coach of the Year after guiding his son to three victories at the Pac-10 meet. Brian Earley became just the second person to win the Pac-10's triple crown.

O'Connell, who is in his 20th season at Arizona State, coached Sun Devil junior Amy Garner to the highest point total of the Pac-10 Championships. Garner finished second in both the one-meter and three-meter competitions, while placing sixth on the platform.

This is the first time the Pac-10 has presented Coach and Diver of the Year awards.

Strong second day lifts Stanford men to I swimming title

Stanford won three of seven events on the second day of competition and built an insurmountable lead in cruising to its third consecutive NCAA Division I Men's Swimming and Diving Championships team title March 24-26 at Minnesota.

Paced by junior Brian Retterer's victories in the 50-yard freestyle and 100-yard backstroke, Stanford won its seventh title overall and sixth in the last 10 years. Texas finished second and Michigan placed third after being runner-up last year. Auburn and California finished fourth and fifth, respectively, and Southern California, Minnesota, Florida, Tennessee, and Alabama and Southern Methodist (which tied) rounded out the top 10.

Tyler Mayfield followed Retterer's win in the 100-yard backstroke with his second consecutive 100-yard backstroke title to help the Cardinal compile 228½ points on the second day of the meet and stretch a one-point lead over second-place Texas to 97½.

Derek Weatherford and Kurt Grote also won individual championships for the Cardinal.—Weatherford in the 200-yard backstroke and Grote in the 200-yard breaststroke. Stanford also won three of the five relay events, setting a meet and U.S. Open record in the 200-yard freestyle relay, the first event of the meet. Stanford also won both medley relays over Auburn.

Michigan's Gustavo Borges was the meet's top scorer, winning the 100-yard freestyle for the third consecutive year in addition to regaining the 200-yard freestyle title he won in 1992. Borges finished second to Retterer in the 50-yard freestyle.

But it was Arizona sophomore Chad Carvin who stole the individual spotlight by setting two meet and U.S. Open records in the distance freestyles and finishing third in the 400-yard individual medley.

Carvin posted a time of 4:11.59 in the 500-yard freestyle on the first day of competition to break Artur Wojdat's five-year-old mark, then two days later smashed Jeff Kostoff's eight-year-old record in the 1,650-yard freestyle by nearly three seconds.

Other individual standouts included Florida's Greg Burgess, who successfully defended his titles in the 200- and 400-yard individual Open records in the latter; California sophomore Ugur Taner, who unseated Stanford's Ray Carey in the 200-yard butterfly, and Rafal Szukala of Iowa, winner of the 100-yard butterfly.

The three diving events were split between a pair of first-time winners—Chemi Gil of Miami (Florida) in the one-meter dive and Evan Stewart of Tennessee in the three-meter dive—and platform diving titlist Brian Earley of Southern California, who also won the event in 1992.

MEN'S SWIMMING & DIVING

STANFORD won its 13th consecutive Pac-10 Championships and went on to claim its third consecutive NCAA crown, and sixth since 1985. Two other teams finished in the Top-10 at the national meet, while another three made it into the Top-15.

Brian Retterer, Tyler Mayfield, Derek Weatherford and Kurt Grote all won NCAA titles (two for Retterer) for the Cardinal, while Stanford took three relay races (including a Pac-10, American, U.S. Open and NCAA Meet record 1:16.93 in the 200 freestyle relay. ARIZONA's Chad Carvin impressed at the NCAA meet as well, setting two American, U.S. Open, NCAA Meet and Pac-10 records (500 free/4:11.59 and 1650 free/14:34.91). CALIFORNIA's Ugur Tanner came up a winner at the NCAA Meet as well, taking the 200 butterfly (1:44.45). On the diving board, USC's Brian Earley won the platform event with 817.90 points and rewrote the Pac-10 record book in all three diving events.

At the Pac-10 Meet, Stanford came up a winner, as expected, on the strength of first-place finishes in 16 events, including all five relays. Weatherford won four races for the Cardinal, while Joe Hudepohl won three races, Ray Carey won two and Kevin Radvany and Mayfield each won one. Carvin was a winner in the 500, while fellow 'Cat Martin Pepper won the 100 butterfly. Marc Fairon of USC was the winner in the 200 breaststroke.

In the Pac-10 diving competition, Earley won all three events, while David Fleck of UCLA finished second in both the three-meter and the platform, and third in the one-meter.

Weatherford and Carvin were named Pac-10 Co-Swimmers of the Year, while Earley was named Pac-10 Diver of the Year. UCLA head coach Rich Ballatore, who guided the Bruins to a surprising second-place showing at the the Pac-10 Meet, shared Swimming Coach of the Year honors with Stanford's Skip Kenney, while Rick Earley of USC, father of the Trojans' Brian Earley, was named the Diving Coach of the Year.
