MEET THEME . . . The meet theme is a simple one, STANFORD, Stanford and Stanford . . . After disposing of No. 2 Texas in a dual meet earlier this season, the top-ranked Cardinal are aiming for their third straight NCAA title . . . But first, Stanford must swim the Pac-10 meet, a title whose trophy has never left the Cardinal since the first Pac-10 Women's Championship Meet in 1987 . . . If anyone has a chance to catch Stanford, it is probably UCLA with sophomore sprinter Richelle Depold and junior distance swimmer Lori Walker . . . A brief look at each class:

DISTANCE FREESTYLE . . . If there is a vulnerable spot for the Cardinal, it is the distance freestyle events . . . Stanford lost Katherine Comanor, last year's 1650 champ, while UCLA returns Walker and junior Natalie Norberg, who finished second and fourth in the 1650 . . . ARIZONA STATE junior Becky Hackiewicz and sophomore teammate Joanne Currah could also challenge in the 1650, respectively . . . In the 500, Stanford returns defending Pac-10 champion Jane Skillman, a sophomore, who will be challenged by sophomore teammate Lisa Jacob and ASU sophomore Chris Jeffrey.

FREESTYLE SPRINTS . . . In the 50, Depold will try to defend her title against Stanford Olympian Jenny Thompson . . . Thompson, a junior, won both the 100 and the 200, but finished second to Depold in the 50 . . . Depold was the runner-up in the 100, while Jacob was second in the 200 . . . One of USC's highest point-getters should be sophomore Ayako Nakano, who was third in both the 100 and 200 last year . . . Another swimmer to keep an eye on will be Stanford senior Mary Edwards who posted a fourth-place finish in the 100 and a fifth-place finish in the 50 . . . Other sprinters to watch include junior Amy Ward and senior Christy Carolan of ARIZONA, CALIFORNIA senior Alice Cantwell, the third-place finisher in the 50 in 1993, and UCLA's Julie Vogt, a senior, and Norberg.

- MORE -

BACKSTROKE . . . In her final Pac-10 meet, Stanford Olympian Lea Loveless will try to defend her titles in both the 100 and 200 . . . The senior was an easy winner in last year's 200 and set a Pac-10 record in the 100 (:53.90) . . . Another senior, UCLA's Kristin Heydanek, was the runner-up in last year's 100 and finished third in the 200 . . . Cardinal sophomore Tammy Shannon posted a second-place finish in the 200 and a fifth-place showing in the 100 . . . Another pair of backstrokers to watch include California sophomore Larissa Herold and Stanford's Edwards.

BREASTSTROKE . . . More than any other events, the 100 and 200 breaststroke finals will be filled with new faces . . . Only two of the top six finishers return from the 100, while three-of-six return in the 200 . . . The defending champion in both events, ASU sophomore Beata Kaszuba, is back to defend her titles against a field comprised mostly of newcomers . . . Two familiar faces in the breaststroke will be UCLA senior Rebecca Bruch, who finished fifth in the 200 and sixth in the 100, and Stanford junior Kendra Thayer, a third-place finisher in the 200 in 1993.

BUTTERFLY . . . The Pac-10 will be crowning a new champion in both the 100 and 200 after the graduation of Stanford great Janel Jorgensen . . . Fellow Cardinal Becky Crowe and Pam Minthorn will be among those looking to fill her cap . . . Crowe, a junior, finished second in the 200 and fourth in the 100 last season, while Minthorn, a senior, was third and sixth, respectively . . . UCLA's Depold may be the swimmer to beat in the 100 . . . Depold was second last year . . . A trio of California swimmers hope to return to the butterfly finals, including seniors Amity Hall and Trina Radke and sophomore Katy Anderson . . . Others to watch include UCLA sophomore Annette Salmeen and Stanford junior Julie Kote.

INDIVIDUAL MEDLEY . . . Stanford and California dominated this event last year and things look to stay the same in 1994 . . . Jorgensen, the top finisher in the 200 IM, is gone, but Stanford returns Loveless, the 1993 runner-up, and junior Mary Ellen Blanchard in that event . . . The Bears return junior Shelia Conway and Herold in the 200 . . . Other teams may be able to make a little headway in the 400 IM, but the top three finishers, Stanford's Thayer, Herold of Cal, and the Cardinal's Blanchard are back in 1994 . . . A couple of up-an-coming IM swimmers include UCLA junior Jamie Marion and ASU's Jeffrey.

RELAYS . . . Just like the meet theme, the relays could be Stanford, Stanford, Stanford, Stanford and Stanford . . . The Cardinal won all five relays in 1993 and has a very good chance to defend those titles in 1994 . . . UCLA may challenge in the Medley and 200 Free relays, while California could provide the main opposition in the 400 and 800 Free relays.

LAST YEAR . . . STANFORD won handily over second-place UCLA . . . The Cardinal won 10-of-13 individual events and all five relays . . . ARIZONA STATE won two events, but finished fourth, while second-place UCLA won one event . . . CALIFORNIA took third with a strong showing in the relays . . . USC edged ARIZONA for fifth, while the Northwest schools filled the final three spots . . . Here is a look at last year's point totals, plus a list of the individual defending champions and their times:

USC'S QUANCE, STANFORD'S WEATHERFORD AND CARVIN OF ARIZONA NAMED PAC-10 SWIMMERS OF THE YEAR, COACHES HILL, BALLATORE AND KENNEY HONORED

WALNUT CREEK, Calif. -- In a vote of Pac-10 Conference coaches, USC freshman Kristine Quance has been named the 1993-94 Pacific-10 Conference Women's Swimmer of the Year, while ARIZONA sophomore Chad Carvin and STANFORD senior Derek Weatherford have been named the 1993-94 Pacific-10 Conference Men's Co-Swimmers of the Year, Commissioner Tom Hansen announced today.

UCLA head coach Ron Ballatore and Stanford's Skip Kenney were named Pac-10 Men's Co-Coaches of the Year, while Tim Hill of ARIZONA STATE was named Women's Coach of the Year.

Quance, from Northridge, Calif., lived up to the high expectations that followed her to USC as the 1993 High School Swimmer of the Year. She set an NCAA record in the 200-yard breaststroke at the Pac-10 Meet with a time of 2:09.88. She won that event and the 100-yard breaststroke at the Pac-10 meet and went on to win three events at the NCAA Meet.

In total this season, Quance set one NCAA record, one NCAA Meet record (200-yard breast/2:10.69), two Pac-10 records (200-yard breast, 100-yard breast/1:01.28) and five USC records.

Carvin, from Laguna Hills, Calif., became the first American since 1985 to win both the 500-yard freestyle (4:11.59) and the 1650-yard freestyle (14:34.91) at the NCAA Meet. He also established new American, NCAA and Pac-10 records in the two events, to become the first person to hold both records simultaneously since 1983.

Carvin won the 500 free at the Pac-10 Meet (4:20.62), but finished fourth in the 1650 free (15.14.44).

Weatherford, from Ft. Meyers, Fla., finished his Stanford career on a high note by winning the 200-yard backstroke at the NCAA Meet, and winning the 100- and 200-yard backstroke and the 200-yard individual medley at the Pac-10 Meet. He is a member of the highest scoring senior class in NCAA Meet history.

After coaching the Bruins to a second-place finish at the Pac-10 Meet, Ballatore was named Coach of the Year, along with Kenney, for the fourth time in his career, and the first time since 1984. UCLA, which has said it will drop swimming as a varsity sport after this season, was 6-6 in dual meets in 1994, and finished 12th at the NCAA Meet.

In 16 years as the Bruins' mentor, Ballatore coached 63 Pac-10 champions and 14 NCAA champions. He guided UCLA to the 1982 NCAA title, and his teams never finished lower than fourth at the Pac-10 Meet. He has a 109-51 career dual meet record.

Kenney guided Stanford to its third consecutive NCAA crown, and sixth since 1985. He also captured an unprecedented 13th-consecutive Pac-10 championship. This is Kenney's ninth career Coach of the Year award. He is a five-time NCAA Coach of the Year, as well.

1993-94 PAC-10 Swimming Honors/April 1, 1994/page 2 of 2

In 15 years at Stanford, Kenney has coached 107 Pac-10 champions and 45 NCAA champions. He has a 113-24 career dual meet record, including a perfect 18-0 mark in the last two seasons.

Hill took Arizona State to its best Conference finish ever, as the Sun Devils finished second with 1,186 points. Hill also produced ASU's first NCAA individual champion for the first time since 1980, insophomore Beata Kaszuba. The Sun Devils finished 13th at this year's NCAA Meet.

UCLA'S KRISTEN WALLS, BRIAN EARLEY OF USC NAMED PAC-10 DIVERS OF THE YEAR, COACHES RICK EARLEY OF USC, WARD O'CONNELL OF ARIZONA STATE HONORED

WALNUT CREEK, Calif. – In a vote of Pac-10 Conference coaches, UCLA senior Kristen Walls has been named the 1993-94 Pacific-10 Conference Women's Diver of the Year, while USC senior Brian Earley has been named the 1993-94 Pacific-10 Conference Men's Diver of the Year, Commissioner Tom Hansen announced today.

USC head coach Rick Earley was named Pac-10 Men's Coach of the Year, while Ward O'Connell of ARIZONA STATE was named Pac-10 Women's Coach of the Year.

Walls, from San Diego, Calif., won the one-meter and three-meter competitions at the Pac-10 Meet. She is the Conference's first three-time one-meter champion and is also a two-time three-meter champ. Walls is a four-year All-American.

Brian Early, from Mission Viejo, Calif., dominated the Pac-10 meet, winning the one-meter, the three-meter and the platform competitions. He also won the NCAA platform title and finished second in the one-meter and three-meter.

A four-time All-American, Brian Earley rebounded from a career-threatening back injury, which forced him to redshirt the 1992-93 season, to claim his third Pac-10 one-meter and platform titles and his second Pac-10 three-meter crown.

Brian Earley's father, Rick Earley, in his 14th year at USC, was named Coach of the Year after guiding his son to three victories at the Pac-10 meet. Brian Earley became just the second person to win the Pac-10's triple crown.

O'Connell, who is in his 20th season at Arizona State, coached Sun Devil junior Amy Garner to the highest point total of the Pac-10 Championships. Garner finished second in both the one-meter and three-meter competitions, while placing sixth on the platform.

This is the first time the Pac-10 has presented Coach and Diver of the Year awards.

WOMEN'S SWIMMING & DIVING

After dominating all five relays and winning eight individual titles, STANFORD won its eighth consecutive Pac-10 title and moved on to claim its third consecutive NCAA crown, and fifth in 12 years. In addition, five other Pac-10 schools rounded out the Top-15.

At the NCAA meet, held in Indianapolis, Ind., the Pac-10 won 10 events with Stanford taking five, USC four and ARIZONA STATE one. Jenny Thompson (100 free, 100 fly) and Lea Loveless (100 back) were the individual medalists for the Cardinal, which also won the 200 and 400 free relays. Sun Devil Beata Kaszuba dazzled the crowd with an electrifying performance in the 100-yard backstroke, breaking the U.S. Open, NCAA and Pac-10 records with a swim of 1:00.46.

Pac-10 Swimmer of the Year Kristine Quance won three events at the NCAA's, including the 200 and 400 individual medleys, and the 200 breast. At the Pac-10 meet, Quance set an NCAA and Pac-10 record in the 200 breast with a time of 2:09.88. Quance also won the 100 breast at the Pac-10 meet, while Stanford's Thompson set a meet record in the 50 free (:22.50) and teammate Loveless notched two meet marks (100 back — 53.00/200 back — 1:54.13).

Tim Hill was named the Pac-10 Coach of the Year after guiding the Sun Devils to a second-place finish — their best in school history. A tribute to its depth, ASU finished second while winning only two events — Chris Jeffrey in the 400 individual medley and Amy Palmer in the platform diving competition.

UCLA senior diver Kristen Walls was named Pac-10 Diver of the Year after winning the Conference one-meter and three-meter dives, while ASU's Ward O'Connell was named Diving Coach of the Year after guiding Palmer to the league platform title, along with two second-place finishes for Amy Garner.
