This past semester at ASU, he never lost a race in dual meet competition in the 50 or 100 freestyle.

UGUR TANER -- The three-time individual NCAA champion in the 200 butterfly led the Bears this season. The Cal captain is the Pac-10 champion in the 200-yard freestyle and second in the 200-yard butterfly.

At the NCAA's, Taner helped the Golden Bears finish in the top 12, by winning his third individual NCAA title in the 200-butterfly. He also finished third in the 200-yard freestyle.

DR. ERNIE MAGLISCHO --After finishing his third season at ASU, Maglischo earned his first Pac-10 Coach of the Year honor. He currently holds a 17-15 record at ASU and in his 23 years of coaching he has posted an impressive 182-74 mark.

Prior to joining ASU, he led the Cal State Bakersfield Roadrunners to eight NCAA Division II titles. He coached 54 individual champions and 147 All-Americans in nine years at Bakersfield, accomplishing what no other coach has in NCAA history.

Depth the difference as Texas claims I men's swimming

Tom Dolan of Michigan and Southern Methodist's Ryan Berube were the individual stars, but host Texas used superior depth to capture its first team title in five years at the Division I Men's Swimming and Diving Championships March 28-30.

Dolan and Berube won three events apiece — Dolan for the second straight year. Coming off three event wins in the 1996 Olympic Trials, Dolan successfully defended his NCAA titles in the 500- and 1,650-yard freestyles and the 400-yard individual medley. Dolan is the first swimmer to repeat in three events since California's Matt Biondi "double-tripled" in 1986 and 1987.

"It's definitely a great honor to be mentioned in the same sentence with such a great swimmer as Matt Biondi," Dolan said. "It's been a great couple of years for me at Michigan."

Berube became Southern Methodist's first three-event winner by capturing the 200-yard individual medley on the first day of the meet, then sweeping the 100- and 200-yard backstrokes. The latter victory came in a dual with Brad Bridgewater of Southern California, a transfer from Texas who had won the 200-meter backstroke at the Olympic Trials.

"I knew Brad would be real strong, especially in the last 50," Berube said. "The last trick up my sleeve was my last turn. It was just a matter of confidence and desire — to stay down when everybody else is dying, wanting to come up for a breath. I wanted to come up just as bad as those guys, but I knew I had that last turn, and it was going to get me home."

Texas was the only team in the meet to score points in all the swimming events, and despite winning just one of those events, the Longhorns rode a big first day of competition to their first team title since 1991.

Texas led off the meet with its lone win (in the 200-yard freestyle relay), then piled up 479 points to finish comfortably ahead of second-place Auburn.

"Without a doubt, our depth was real important," Longhorn coach Eddie Reese said. "If you can get two in the top eight, or four in the (consolation race), that's not just depth — that's good depth. We knew we were good in every event."

Neil Walker and Matt Hooper led the Texas charge. Walker scored top-four finishes in the three freestyle sprints and the 100-yard backstroke, while Hooper placed third in both distance freestyles and second to Dolan in the 400-yard individual medley.

"The hometown crowd and pool definitely helped us," Reese said. "But the pool is very fast and the facility is tops — it was as much good for us as it was for the other teams."

Two American and U.S. Open records were set, both in relay events. Tennessee took the 200-yard medley relay in a record 1:25.85 — one of two relay wins for the Vols and their first relay win since 1979. Michigan, with Dolan swimming the anchor leg, eclipsed a 12-year-old mark in the 800-yard freestyle relay with a time of 6:20.89.

Ugur Taner of California won the 200-yard butterfly for the third straight year, the first triple in that event since Stanford's Pablo Morales won it four times from 1984 through 1987.

Miami (Florida) dominated the diving events, placing Nos. 1, 2 and 3 in two. Bryan Gillooly, named diver of the year, won the platform event, finished second in the three-meter dive and third in the one-meter dive. Teammate Chris Mantilla won the one-meter event
