Jackson, a three-time NCAA champion, is the defending Conference champ in the 500 and 1650 free. She has the nation's fifth fastest time in the 500 free (4:45.87). Lindsey Farella is the defending Pac-10 champ in the 200 free. She currently has the fifth fastest time in the nation (1:47.53) behind freshman Sarah Tolar (1:45.14) whose time is an UA record, breaking Ashley Tappin's old mark of 1:45.23. Tolar also sports the fastest collegiate mark in the 500 free (4:42.19). Juniors Denali Knapp and Rachel Joseph could finish on the podium in the backstroke events, while freshmen Emily Mastin and Erin Vogt could contend for a Conference title in the IMs. The Wildcats also look to defend their title in the 400 free relay, an event in which the Cats are currently ranked No. 1 in the nation (3:17.52). Additionally, the Arizona 200 free relay is the nation's fastest (1:31.78). Arizona won 1998 NCAA Championships in the 200, 400 and 800 free relays. They are the first ever to accomplish this feat.

ARIZONA STATE: No. 22 Arizona State and coach Michael Chasson hope to improve on its sixth place finish of one year ago. Freshman Riley Mants is expected to contend for medals in the breaststroke events. Mants is currently the third fastest collegian in the 200 breast (2:12.70) and is 11th quickest in the 100 breast (1:02.56). Junior Carolyn Adel is a returning medalist in the 400 IM. She is ranked in the top-20 nationally in the 200 (1:48.28) and 500 free (4:49.68). She will contend for the IM championships. CALIFORNIA: The No. 6 Golden Bears head coach Teri McKeever need look no further than senior Elli Overton for big points at the Pac-10 Championships. Overton comes to Federal Way as the defending Conference champion in both the 200 and 400 IM. Her time in winning the 200 IM (1:58.25) is a Pac-10 Championships record. Overton is currently ranked nationally in the top-25 in both IMs. Junior Marylyn Chiang is ranked No. 1 in the nation in the 100 backstroke (53.74) and No. 2 in the 100 fly (53.21) and is expected to challenge for the Pac-10 championship in each. Chiang is also top-20 in the 50 (23.21) and 100 free (49.98). Freshman Joscelyn Yeo is the third fastest collegian 200 flyer (1:57.27). The Bears are expected to make a run for championships in the relay events. Cal ranks fifth or better nationally in the 400 free (3:19.75), 200 medley (1:40.85) and 400 medley (3:40.62) relays.

OREGON STATE: The Beavers are an up and coming young team led by somebody who knows how to win; two-time Olympian and nine-time All-American at Arizona, Mariusz Podkoscielny. Podkoscielny will look for leadership from OSU team captain Erica Stephens. Stephens figures score points in the back and IM events. School record holder in the 100 fly Melissa Hsieh also hopes to contribute points in the butterfly events. The sophomore eclipsed the school record in the 100 fly at last year's Pac-10 meet after swimming a 58.03. The Beavers look to score big in the relay events. Currently OSU is nationally ranked in both the 400 free relay (3:32.45) and the 400 medley relay (3:55.38).

STANFORD: The defending Pac-10 Champion Cardinal, led by Richard Quick, come to the 1999 Championships as the No. 4 team in the land. 1998 Pac-10 and NCAA Swimmer of the Year Misty Hyman looks to repeat as Pac-10 champion in the 100 and 200 flys and the 200 back. Hyman, a sophomore, is currently the nation's fastest in all three events (100 fly, 52.68; 200 fly, 1:55.89; 200 back, 1:55.01). Catherine Fox was also a three-time winner at the 1998 Championships. Fox, a junior, brought home first place medals in the 50 and 100 free and the 100 back. She is ranked nationally in the 50 free (23.02), 100 free (50.66) and the 200 back (1:59.94). Fox also posted the second fastest collegiate 100 back time this year (54.30). Senior Elin Austevoll is the second fastest 200 (2:12.37) and sixth fastest 100 breaststroker (1:01.88) in the land, and should challenge for those championships. In addition to its individual championships, Stanford won titles in the 200 and 400 medley relay, and the 200 and 800 freestyle relay. This season they are ranked No. 1 nationally in the 200 medley relay (1:40.45) and top five in the 400 (3:20.13) and 800 free relay (7:23.65).

UCLA: The Bruins come into the 1999 Pac-10 Championships ranked No. 17 in the country. Head coach Cyndi Gallagher will expect big points from junior Keiko Price. Price finished tied for third in the 50 free last year, and fourth in the 100 and 200 freestyles. This season she comes into the meet ranked third nationally in the 50 free (22.86) and seventh in the 100 free (49.82). The breaststroke is where the Bruins figure to score the most points, led by freshmen Lyndee Hovespian and Jenn Noddle and junior Amber Wines. Hovespian's times in the 100 (1:03.07) and 200 breast (2:16.06) rank nationally in the top-20, while Wines' time in the 100 breast (1:03.55) and Noddle's time in the 200 breast (2:17.08) rank in the top-30. Sophomore Beth Goodwin and freshman Katie Younglove could also score points in the butterfly events.

USC: Mark Schubert's No. 5 Women of Troy are led into the 1999 Pac-10 Championships by a familiar face. Senior Lindsay Benko will swim in her final Conference meet after a storied career. Benko finished second in the 200 back, third in the 200 free and sixth in the 500 free at the '98 Championships. This year, her time in the 500 free (4:44.29) is third fastest in the nation, while her 200 free time (1:47.87) is ninth best. Freshman Kristin MacGregor could contend for titles in the 100 and 200 breaststroke. She is currently ranked nationally among the top-10 in both the 100 (1:01.92) and 200 breast (2:14.96). Senior Karen Campbell is ranked in the top-10 in both the 100 (53.54) and 200 butterfly (1:58.59), and could challenge for the Conference title in both events. USC is also strong in the medley relays, with its 400 MR (3:40.39) the second fastest in the nation, while its 200 MR (1:41.71) is seventh fastest.

WASHINGTON: First year head coach Micky Wender's Huskies will strive to improve on their seventh place finish of one year ago. Senior Addy Elsner is expected to score points for UW. Elsner's time in the 200 back (1:59.83) is top-20 nationally, while her mark in the 200 IM (2:03.08) is one of the 30 best. Junior Rae Abbott is a strong breaststroker, and will also be counted on to score points. Her 200 breast (2:15.49) time is 16th best this year. Junior Kristin Nagata could also score in the backstroke events. Last season, Washington finished sixth in both the 200 and 400 medley relays. This season the Huskies 400 MR (3:46.39) is ranked 15th in the nation, while their 200 MR (1:44.25) is 16th. Both times are school records. Also, UW's 800 free relay (7:40.32) is ranked in the top-50.

WASHINGTON STATE: Head coach Rocco Aceto brings a very experienced team to Federal Way, with eight seniors and five juniors on the roster. The Cougars are led by senior Erin Eldridge. Eldridge finished fourth in the 200 breaststroke and sixth in the 100 breast at last year's Pac-10 meet. This season she brings the nation's 23rd best 100 breast (1:03.53) and 24th best 200 breast (2:16.94) times to the meet. WSU could also score points in the medley relays. ## COACH OF THE YEAR

USA Swimming honors Frank Busch, Ray Mitchell as the 1998 coaches of the year

COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo.— Frank Busch, who placed nine swimmers on international teams this summer, was named the 1998 Coach of the Year by USA Swimming. Ray Mitchell was recognized as the Developmental Coach of the Year, having seven swimmers, ages 17-and-under, qualify for the 2000 Olympic Trials.

Both men will be honored by the U.S. Olympic Committee at a dinner in Houston on Sept. 19 and by USA Swimming at its annual convention in Cincinnati on Oct. 2.

Busch, who is from Cincinnati, coaches at the University of Arizona in Tucson and Hillenbrand Aquatics, the 1998 national women's and combined team champions. Mitchell of Concord, Calif., is the head coach of the Terrapins Swim Team, which features rising star Natalie Coughlin.

"When you get an award like this, you feel kind of awkward," said Busch. "You look around and there's a lot of tremendous coaches. No matter how good their team is that year, you can see what great coaching skills they have. You're humbled by it and I think most coaches feel that way when they receive an honor like this, because you don't feel like you're any better than those coaches."

"It's a nice honor," said Mitchell. "It's a credit to our staff and the total organization. It's a result of a total staff effort because most of these kids have come up through our programs. I'm really pleased with the development of some of our 17 and under kids. We have seven who are qualified for the 2000 Olympic Trials who are 17 or under, so we're really excited about that."

FRANK BUSCH

At the 1998 USA Swimming National Championships, Frank Busch coached Hillenbrand Aquatics of Tucson, Ariz., to the combined team and women's team titles. The women's team won its title by a whopping 157 points. The team trophies were the end-of-the-season icing on the cake for Busch, who enjoyed an unparalleled year of accomplishments, beginning in the fall of 1997 when Chad Carvin, a Busch disciple earned the 1997 U.S. Swimmer of the Year.

Carvin's plight earned worldwide attention. A virtual lock to make the 1996 Olympic team, Carvin was sidelined with a life-threatening heart condition that kept him out of the Olympic trials. Busch guided Carvin through a remarkable comeback that culminated with the U.S. Swimmer of the Year honors.

Busch, the U.S. men's head coach at the Pan Pacific Championships last August, took that momentum into the collegiate arena, where the Busch-led Wildcats flourished--both men's and women's team finished in the top six in the nation. The women's team was the national champion runner-ups--the highest finish in school history.

Olympian Trina Jackson led the women's squad with a national title in the 1650-yard freestyle. Busch's women also became the first school to sweep all three freestyle relays at the NCAA Championships in 16 years. On the men's side, Busch-pupil, Ryk Neethling, became only the second swimmer in NCAA history to win the 200y, 500y and 1650y freestyles.

Busch wasn't finished with comeback stories. At the 1998 Spring Nationals, another Busch protegee, Ashley Tappin, captured the national spotlight. Returning to the sport after shoulder surgery, Tappin won four individual titles and the Comeback Award, becoming the second Busch athlete to earn the coveted award in one year--only 10 women in history have won four titles in one nationals.

Which brings us back to the 1998 USA Swimming Summer Nationals. Busch's teams not only won the combined team title and the women's team title, but nine of Busch's swimmers, including 200m freestyle champion Ugur Taner, earned spots on three 1999 international teams. Three swimmers qualified for the 1999 Pan Pacific Championships, which will be contested in the Olympic venue in Sydney; five for the Pan American Games team and one for the World University Games team.

RAY MITCHELL

The Terrapins Swim Team of Concord, Calif., guided by coach Ray Mitchell, placed five swimmers on USA Swimming's National Junior team in 1998. One of his top pupils, Natalie Coughlin, won two national titles in 1998; the 200m backstroke at both the Spring and Summer National Championships. Coughlin, 15, one of America's top rising stars, is on the National "A" team, which requires a top-eight world ranking; she holds a top 25 world ranking in six different events. She is one of the very few swimmers in history to ever qualify to swim every event in every stroke and distance at the National level.

In May, Coughlin broke two national high school records: Misty Hyman's 100y backstroke and Allison Wagner's 200y individual medley. Coughlin made the 1999 Pan Pacific team that will compete in the Olympic venue in Sydney in two events.

Mitchell has three other swimmers who rank in the Top 25 in the world: Shanna DeMichelle, Laura Davis, and Mike Gausman; all four swimmers are the youngest in the rankings in their respective events.

Mitchell, who has trained over 90 high school All-Americans, coached his team to a National Championship runner-up spot at the 1998 Spring Nationals with a team comprised almost entirely of age group swimmers.
