Georgia Wins Second Straight Div. I Women's Swimming & Diving Title 3/18/2000

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind. - (Mar. 18) In a classic dog and cat fight, the Georgia Bulldogs hung on to defeat the Arizona Wildcats for their second-straight NCAA Swimming & Diving title on March 18 in Indianapolis. Georgia finished with 490.5 points to Arizona's 472.

The Lady Bulldogs' evening was capped as Georgia senior co-captains Courtney Shealy and Kristy Kowal were named co recipients of the CSCAA Swimmer of the Year Award, both tallying three individual titles while aiding their team in the relay victories as well. Georgia head coach Jack Bauerle received his third CSCAA Women's Swimming Coach of the Year Award. Diving coach and athlete of the year honors were presented to LSU's head coach Scott Reich and Ashley Culpepper.

With Arizona needing to win the final relay (400m free relay) and Georgia to finish sixth or lower for the Wildcats to win the title, the Bulldogs could have been extra careful about the relay takeoffs to ensure no false starts. Georgia went after the race aggressively though, winning the event and the team title with an American record time of 3:37.67, bettering the time set by the USA National Team earlier today in Athens, Greece, at the Short Course World Championships, a 3:37.97. The time was also a U.S. Open record pace, topping the previous record of 3:41.74 posted by East Germany in 1983.

"The coaches told us we just needed to finish fifth, but we weren't out there to do that," senior Courtney Shealy said. "We still wanted to win it."

Shealy's win in the 100m free (53.99) earlier in the night had re-ignited Georgia, who had slipped a little in the first two events of the night. Shealy's win was followed by teammate's Kristy Kowal's American record win in the 200m breast (2:22.05). Shealy and Kowal were named co-NCAA Female Swimmers of the Year. Bauerle was voted Coach of the Year for the third time.

"Courtney's win was gigantic," Georgia head coach Jack Bauerle said. "We had lost our momentum and we had to get that done. Then with Kristy's win next ... these two (Shealy and Kowal) wanted this (team title) more than anyone. We just pin their ears back and let 'em go.

"This year was harder to win. I now have a newfound respect for (Stanford) coach Richard Quick who's won so many titles. Defending a title is a different feeling. Last year was almost easy. It just seemed to flow. We didn't have many injuries. At one point in January, we were a skeleton of what we were tonight.

"What a terrific meet it was. I have great respect for Arizona."

"We have a very good team coming back and a good recruiting class coming in," said Arizona head coach Frank Busch. "That doesn't guarantee anything though. There's a lot of factors that can come into play over the next 12 months, but I'm looking forward to the next few years because this is a young team and I'm proud of their effort this week."

Also winning titles tonight were Virginia freshman Cara Lane in the 1500m free (16:03.59), Arizona freshman Beth Botsford in the 200m back (2:06.70 - American record), Nevada senior Limin Liu in the 200m fly (2:06.04) and Miami junior Jenny Keim in platform diving (538.80).

The NCAA meet, held in short course meters for the first time in history, saw the record books rewritten. Over the three day meet, two world records (50m back, 400m medley relay) and one world best (200m medley relay) were broken, as well as 11 American records.

STANFORD'S ERIN SONES AND McKENZE MURPHY NAMED ATHLETE AND NEWCOMER OF THE YEAR IN WOMEN'S DIVING STANFORD'S RICK SCHAVONE NAMED PAC-10 COACH OF THE YEAR

WALNUT CREEK, Calif. -- STANFORD's Erin Sones has been named Pacific-10 Conference Diver of the Year, while STANFORD's McKenzie Murphy has been named Newcomer of the Year, and STANFORD'S Rick Schavone has been named Coach of the Year, Commissioner Tom Hansen announced today.

Sones, a junior from Pasadena, Calif., finished in the top-four in all three diving events at the Pac-10 Championships in Long Beach, Calif., including taking the top prize in the three-meter event. Sones also finished second in the one-meter event and fourth in the platform. At the NCAA Championships in Indianapolis, Ind., she was the top Pac-10 finisher in the three-meter event, placing third. Sones also placed 14th in the one-meter event.

Murphy, a freshman from Lakeside Park, Ky. and two-time prep All-American, placed two top-three finishes at the Pac-10 Championships. She placed second in the platform diving to lead Stanford, as well as third in the three-meter event. At the NCAA Championships, Murphy finished 19th and 23rd in the one-meter and three-meter events.

In his 21st year at Stanford, Schavone helped lead the Cardinal divers to one Pac-10 individual title and seven top-eight finishes, the win by the aforementioned Sones. The Stanford swimming and diving team overall took second at the Pac-10s and third at the NCAA Championships. The Women's Coach of the Year award is the fourth of Schavone's career and second consecutive.

The Conference awards are voted on by the coaches.

CALIFORNIA'S HALEY COPE NAMED WOMEN'S SWIMMER OF THE YEAR ARIZONA'S BETH BOTSFORD NEWCOMER OF THE YEAR AND ARIZONA'S FRANK BUSCH COACH OF THE YEAR

WALNUT CREEK, Calif. -- CALIFORNIA'S Haley Cope has been named Women's Swimmer of the Year, ARIZONA's Beth Botsford Newcomer of the Year, and ARIZONA's Frank Busch has been named Coach of the Year, Commissioner Tom Hansen announced today.

Cope, a 5-11 junior from Chico, Calif., was the lead swimmer on two relay teams which won titles at this year's Pac-10 Championships in Long Beach, Calif. and the NCAA Championships in Indianapolis, Ind. Cope swam Cal to two Pac-10 meet records in the 200 medley relay and 400 medley relay. She also had top-eight finishes in the 100 backstroke, 100 butterfly, and 200 backstroke. At the NCAAs, Cope led Cal to a World Record in the 200 medley relay with a time of 1:49.23. She also swam on the 200 freestyle relay, setting a U.S. Open Record in the process with a time of 1:40.18. To top it off she finished second in the 100 backstroke and sixth in the 100 butterfly.

Botsford, a 5-9 freshman from Timonium, Md., was a significant contributor to Arizona's first-ever Pac-10 championship, and school-best second-place finish at the NCAA Championships. Botsford took home the title in the 200 backstroke at the Pac-10s, in a time of 1:54.45. She also finished fourth in the 100 backstroke. At the NCAAs, Botsford won a National title by swimming the 200 backstroke in a time of 2:06.70, a new American Record. She also finished third in the 100 backstroke.

Busch has been named Coach of the Year for the third time (1991, 1998) in his 11-year career. He led the Wildcats to a school-record second-place finish at the NCAA Championships. He also directed UA to its first-ever Pac-10 Championship, which also marks the first time in the 14-year history of the event that Stanford did not win the title. Busch had three swimmers win individual titles at the Pac-10s, and at the NCAAs he had an 800 freestyle relay squad win the title in a U.S Open Record time of 7:55.51, as well as the aforementioned Botsford win an individual title.

The awards are determined by a vote of the coaches.
