THE PARTICIPANTS

PAC-10: The 2000 Pac-10 Championships feature some of the top teams in the country...Spots two through five are occupied by Pac-10 squads in the latest CSCAA Top-25 – No. 2 ARIZONA, No. 3 STANFORD, No. 4 CALIFORNIA, and No. 5 USC. Also appearing are No. 11 UCLA and NO. 18 ARIZONA STATE, and WASHINGTON STATE received votes...In all, five 1999 individual Pac-10 champions are back to defend their six crowns...They are Stanford's Catherine Fox (50 free) and Misty Hyman (100 fly, 200 fly), Cal's Waen Minpraphal (400 IM), Arizona's Trina Jackson (1650 free), and UCLA's Keiko Price (100 free)...Two NCAA individual champions will take the pool at Pac-10s...Stanford's Misty Hyman (100 fly) and Catherine Fox (50 free) won NCAA titles in 1999...Last year marked the first time in eight years a Pac-10 team did not come home with the NCAA Women's Swimming Championship. Conference teams did, however, finish in four of the top-six spots with Stanford leading the way as the runner-up. Arizona finished 4th, followed by California (5th), and USC (6th).

ARIZONA: Arizona comes into the competition as the No. 2 team in the nation for the second consecutive season. Leading the way for Frank Busch's Cats is senior Trina Jackson and a couple of freshmen Olympic medalists. Jackson, a three-time NCAA champion, is the defending Conference champ in the 1650 free. She currently has the nation's fourth-fastest time in the 1650 free and the top time in the 500 free, which she won two years ago at the Pac-10 Championships. Sophomore Sarah Tolar has the top times in the NCAA this season in both the 100 free and the 200 free. Tolar finished sixth in the 500 free at last year's Pac-10 Championships. Arizona sports the Olympic freshman duo of Beth Botsford and Amanda Beard. Botsford was a double gold-medalist at the 1996 Olympic Games in Atlanta. She has the nation's best times in the 100 and 200 backstroke. Beard won a gold and two silver medals at the '96 Games. This season, she has the top time in the nation in the 100 breaststroke and third-best marks in the 200 breaststroke and 200 individual medley. Other individuals that should score points are Jennifer Vanker (50 free, 100 free, 200 free), Denali Knapp (50 free, 100 free, 100 back, 200 back), and Jessamyn Miller (100 breast, 200 breast). The Wildcats also hold the best times this year in the 200 medley relay and the 200 freestyle relay, and are defending national champions in the 400 freestyle relay.

ARIZONA STATE: No. 18 Arizona State and coach Michael Chasson hope to improve on its sixth place Pac-10 finish of one year ago. Two ASU swimmers have already assured themselves of a spot at the 2000 NCAA Championships by virtue of automatic qualifying performances this season. Sophomore Sarah Baham has posted sub-NCAA times in both the 100 and 200 butterfly, including a school record 1:58.70 mark at Cal, Jan. 13. Baham has the fourth-best time in the 200 butterfly this season. Carolyn Adel will take her shot at national titles in the 200 breast and 400 individual medley following the Pac-10's. Sophomore Riley Mants finished second a year ago in the 200 breaststroke. Also look for senior Casey Murphy to challenge in the 500 free. The Sun Devils will also have a strong team together for the 800 freestyle relay, in which they own the fifth-best mark in the nation, second-best among Pac-10 schools.

CALIFORNIA: The No. 4 Golden Bears and head coach Teri McKeever enter the Pac-10 Championships with one of its best teams, featuring 10 returning All-Americans. California is the defending champion in the 200 freestyle relay, 200 individual medley (Marylyn Chiang), 400 individual medley (Waen Minpraphal), 100 backstroke (Chiang), and 400 freestyle relay. Senior Minpraphal returns, while Chiang does not. Junior Haley Cope has recorded the second-best time in the nation in the 100 backstroke this season, and is also the school's record holder in the 200 medley relay and 400 free relay. Cope was a 1999 All-American in three events, including the 100 butterfly. Sophomore Alice Henriques has a top-10 time in the 200 backstroke this season, and will challenge for points in that event. Senior Elli Overton holds the fourth-best time in the 200 breaststroke, and is a Pac-10 champion from two years ago. Overton also has the fourth-best time in the nation in the 400 IM. Freshman Stacianna Stitts is in the top-five in both the 100 and 200 breaststroke. Sophomore Joscelin Yeo holds three school-records and is ranked No. 3 in the 200 butterfly.

OREGON STATE: The Beavers are an up-and-coming young team led by one who knows how to win—two-time Olympian and nine-time All-American at Arizona, Mariusz Podkoscielny. Podkoscielny will look for the Beavers to improve on their ninth-place Conference finish a year ago. Top swimmers include junior Arianna Higuera and freshman Naya Higashijima. OSU finished the '99-2000 season with a 7-3 record, their highest win total since 1991. In seven of the team's 10 events, the Beavers set at least one school record in an event. In all, OSU set 14 school records this season. Oregon State's best finish at the Pac-10s was a second-place finish, done three times, and most recently in 1983.

STANFORD: The 13-time defending Pac-10 Champion Cardinal come to the 2000 Championships as the No. 3 team in the nation. Led by head coach Richard Quick, Stanford is poised to win their 14th consecutive title. Top swimmer junior Misty Hyman will attempt to defend several titles. Hyman swam the 100 butterfly for a Pac-10 Championships record of 52.38 seconds last year to win the event, and then won the national title as well. She also won the 200 butterfly, and swam a leg on the championship 800 freestyle relay, 200 and 400 medley relays. Hyman is in the top-10 nationally in several categories including the 200 free, 200 back, 200 fly, and 200 IM. Senior Catherine Fox is the defending Pac-10 and national champion in the 50 free. Others to look for include junior Siobhan Cropper, who holds top-20 times in the 50 and 100 free, sophomore Jessica Foschi (top-10 in 500, 1000 free, and 1650 free), and sophomore Shelley Ripple (No. 5 100 back). As a team, the Cardinal hold the 400 medley relay top-time, and will attempt to defend that title, as well as titles in the 200 medley relay, 400 medley relay, and 800 freestyle relay Championships, in which they were also national champions.

UCLA: The Bruins come into the 2000 Pac-10 Championships ranked No. 11 in the country. Last year the Bruins finished fifth at the meet. Head coach Cyndi McCullam Gallagher will expect big points from senior All-American Keiko Price. Price will be attempting to defend her 1999 Pac-10 title in the 100-yard freestyle. This season, she is undefeated in dual meets in the 100 free, and currently holds the fourth-best short course yards time in the nation. She holds the best time in the 50 free as well. Price finished fifth in last year's 200-yard freestyle and will be attempting to score points in that event for the Bruins. Sophomore breaststroker Jenn Noddle holds a top-15 time nationally in the 200 breaststroke. Sophomore Lyndee Hovsepian placed well in her first season as a Bruin, finishing fourth in the 100 breaststroke and sixth in the 200 breaststroke. She spotted top-20 times nationally in both those events this season. Sophomore Katie Younglove finished second in the 200 butterfly and is in the top-15 this season. Also look for sophomore Nicole Beck in the 100 backstroke (top-15 nationally) and junior Julie Voitovitsch (seventh-best 100 fly). UCLA has top-15 times in all the relay events in 2000.

USC: Mark Schubert's No. 5 Women of Troy are led into the 2000 Pac-10 Championships by a young corps of swimmers. USC finished second at last year's Championships and sixth in the NCAA. Three All-Americans return, including sophomore Kristin MacGregor, senior Paige Francis, and sophomore Carolyn Conrad. MacGregor is the returner with the best finish from last year's Championships, placing second in the 100 breaststroke. She currently has a top-15 time nationally in the event. USC's top swimmer this season has been freshman Michala Kwasny, who owns top times in four events in yards. She has already posted NCAA qualifying times in the 200 IM (USC record 1:59.37), 400 IM, and the 200 fly. Kwasny has posted top-15 times in the 200 breaststroke and 200 butterfly. Francis is a five-time All-American and has top-15 times nationally in the 100 and 200 backstroke. Also look for freshman Asa Sandlund in the 500 free, who has the sixth-best time in that event. The Trojans' 400 medley relay team is ranked No. 3 and 800 medley relay No. 4.

WASHINGTON: Second-year head coach Micky Wender's Huskies will strive to improve on their seventh-place finish of one year ago. Senior Kristin Nagata leads the way for the Huskies, having qualified for the Olympic trials in the 100 backstroke and 100 butterfly. She has the UW's fastest time in four events, including the 50 free, 100 free, 100 back, and 100 fly. Nagata has a top-15 time in the 100 butterfly. Senior Rae Abbott had the best individual finish of any swimmer at last year's Championships, placing third in the 200 breaststroke. Junior Irene Schneider has the 10th-best mark in the nation in the 400 IM this year and has Olympic qualifying times in that event and the 200 fly.

WASHINGTON STATE: Head coach Rocco Aceto brings a team that is strong on seniors and freshmen. The Cougars are led by seniors Erin Eldridge and Kelley Miedema. WSU finished eighth at last year's Pac-10 meet. Eldridge was the Cougars' top finisher, placing third in the 100 breaststroke. Miedema is the team's top swimmer in the backstroke. Freshman Lindsay Henahan broke a school record in the 100 butterfly near the end of the season, swimming in 56.45 seconds. Another freshman, Melissa Hubley, also broke the school record in the 200 butterfly early in the season and broke her own record a couple weeks ago, swimming the event in 2:04.33.

LAST YEAR: Stanford won its 13th consecutive Conference title, en route to a runner-up finish at the NCAA meet in Athens, Ga.

Georgia Wins Second Straight Div. I Women's Swimming & Diving Title 3/18/2000

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind. - (Mar. 18) In a classic dog and cat fight, the Georgia Bulldogs hung on to defeat the Arizona Wildcats for their second-straight NCAA Swimming & Diving title on March 18 in Indianapolis. Georgia finished with 490.5 points to Arizona's 472.

The Lady Bulldogs' evening was capped as Georgia senior co-captains Courtney Shealy and Kristy Kowal were named co recipients of the CSCAA Swimmer of the Year Award, both tallying three individual titles while aiding their team in the relay victories as well. Georgia head coach Jack Bauerle received his third CSCAA Women's Swimming Coach of the Year Award. Diving coach and athlete of the year honors were presented to LSU's head coach Scott Reich and Ashley Culpepper.

With Arizona needing to win the final relay (400m free relay) and Georgia to finish sixth or lower for the Wildcats to win the title, the Bulldogs could have been extra careful about the relay takeoffs to ensure no false starts. Georgia went after the race aggressively though, winning the event and the team title with an American record time of 3:37.67, bettering the time set by the USA National Team earlier today in Athens, Greece, at the Short Course World Championships, a 3:37.97. The time was also a U.S. Open record pace, topping the previous record of 3:41.74 posted by East Germany in 1983.

"The coaches told us we just needed to finish fifth, but we weren't out there to do that," senior Courtney Shealy said. "We still wanted to win it."

Shealy's win in the 100m free (53.99) earlier in the night had re-ignited Georgia, who had slipped a little in the first two events of the night. Shealy's win was followed by teammate's Kristy Kowal's American record win in the 200m breast (2:22.05). Shealy and Kowal were named co-NCAA Female Swimmers of the Year. Bauerle was voted Coach of the Year for the third time.

"Courtney's win was gigantic," Georgia head coach Jack Bauerle said. "We had lost our momentum and we had to get that done. Then with Kristy's win next ... these two (Shealy and Kowal) wanted this (team title) more than anyone. We just pin their ears back and let 'em go.

"This year was harder to win. I now have a newfound respect for (Stanford) coach Richard Quick who's won so many titles. Defending a title is a different feeling. Last year was almost easy. It just seemed to flow. We didn't have many injuries. At one point in January, we were a skeleton of what we were tonight.

"What a terrific meet it was. I have great respect for Arizona."

"We have a very good team coming back and a good recruiting class coming in," said Arizona head coach Frank Busch. "That doesn't guarantee anything though. There's a lot of factors that can come into play over the next 12 months, but I'm looking forward to the next few years because this is a young team and I'm proud of their effort this week."

Also winning titles tonight were Virginia freshman Cara Lane in the 1500m free (16:03.59), Arizona freshman Beth Botsford in the 200m back (2:06.70 - American record), Nevada senior Limin Liu in the 200m fly (2:06.04) and Miami junior Jenny Keim in platform diving (538.80).

The NCAA meet, held in short course meters for the first time in history, saw the record books rewritten. Over the three day meet, two world records (50m back, 400m medley relay) and one world best (200m medley relay) were broken, as well as 11 American records.

Division I

Georgia women's swimmers give performance to be remembered

Georgia's senior co-captain Kristy Kowal set the tone for the Division I Women's Swimming and Diving Championships when she said, "If (Georgia's) going to make us seniors leave, we're going to make sure we're remembered."

Kowal and her fellow Lady Bulldogs did just that by winning nine of 21 events to secure their second consecutive NCAA title March 18 in Indianapolis. Georgia finished with 490 1/2 points, holding off Arizona (472) and 1999 runner-up Stanford (397).

Georgia clinched the title in the last event of the meet, the 400-meter freestyle relay. Arizona needed to win the event and have Georgia finish sixth or lower to claim the title. With the pressure of avoiding a false start, Georgia might have been less aggressive in the race. But Courtney Shealy, senior co-captain for Georgia said, "Going into it, we said, 'forget about getting fifth place; we're going to win this race.'"

The Bulldogs did and closed the door on Arizona.

Shealy earned three individual titles with wins in the 50- and 100-meter freestyles and the 100-meter backstroke. She also swam a leg for Georgia's winning 400-meter medley relay team. Meanwhile, Kowal bettered her own performance from the 1999 championships by adding the 200-meter individual medley title to repeat wins in the 100- and 200-meter breaststrokes. She also contributed to her team's win in the 400-meter medley relay. Both Kowal and Shealy were named co-swimmers of the Meet.

As was the hope of the NCAA Men's and Women's Swimming and Diving Committee, the decision to conduct the meet in short-course meters resulted in record-setting swims. California's 200-meter medley relay team set a world-record time of 1:10.18. Georgia's time of 3:57.46 in the 400-meter medley relay was a world's best. Several American records also were set during the course of the meet, which might be a good indicator of things to come. The U.S. Olympic trials will be held at the same natatorium in August.

Because this is the first time the meet has been held in short-course meters, there will be two sets of meet records kept. The frequency with which future championships will be held in short-course meters has yet to be determined. Georgia coach Jack Bauerle said, "I welcome the short-course meters. I'd even like for it to stay in meters because it behaves us internationally to race that course."

And Arizona coach Frank Busch said, "Short-course meters are a tremendous advantage to our sport, but I am still a traditionalist who would hate to see the yards go."

Other top performances came from Columbia-Barnard's Christina Teusch-er, who equaled her 1998 efforts with wins in the 100-meter freestyle and 400-meter individual medley. Nevada's Limin Liu won the 100- and 200-meter butterfly.

In diving, LSU's Jamie Watkins and Ashley Colpepper won the one- and three-meter springboards, respectively. Jenny Keim took the platform title for Miami (Florida) and finished second in the one-meter springboard.

CALIFORNIA'S HALEY COPE NAMED WOMEN'S SWIMMER OF THE YEAR ARIZONA'S BETH BOTSFORD NEWCOMER OF THE YEAR AND ARIZONA'S FRANK BUSCH COACH OF THE YEAR

WALNUT CREEK, Calif. -- CALIFORNIA'S Haley Cope has been named Women's Swimmer of the Year, ARIZONA's Beth Botsford Newcomer of the Year, and ARIZONA's Frank Busch has been named Coach of the Year, Commissioner Tom Hansen announced today.

Cope, a 5-11 junior from Chico, Calif., was the lead swimmer on two relay teams which won titles at this year's Pac-10 Championships in Long Beach, Calif. and the NCAA Championships in Indianapolis, Ind. Cope swam Cal to two Pac-10 meet records in the 200 medley relay and 400 medley relay. She also had top-eight finishes in the 100 backstroke, 100 butterfly, and 200 backstroke. At the NCAAs, Cope led Cal to a World Record in the 200 medley relay with a time of 1:49.23.
