

Drury Men Knock Off CS Bakersfield; Truman Women Roll On

GRAND FORKS, N.D. -- The Drury University men took three of the four individual titles on Saturday and halted three-time defending champion California State-Bakersfield's run by winning the 2003 NCAA Division II Swimming and Diving Championships.

It marked the second national title for Drury, winning previously in 1999. CSUB was 77 points off of Drury's 612 total to pick-up second with host North Dakota placing third with 392.50 points.

On the women's side, Truman University capped off its third straight national title on Saturday, winning the night's final event, the 400-yard freestyle relay, in record time. The Bulldogs amassed 682 points with Drury in second with 412 and UC-San Diego and West Chester tying for third with 365.50 points apiece.

Henrik Weible got the Drury men off to a good start with a win in the 1650 freestyle. Lynsey Fugate, also of Drury, won the event on the women's side.

Southern Connecticut State University standout Ben Michaelson put an exclamation on his collegiate career with a :43.73 time in the 100 freestyle, another meet record. The previous record time of :44.16 stood for 13 years before Michaelson rewrote the record books. Michaelson totaled four individual titles at the meet, all in meet record times. He now has 10 NCAA individual titles to his credit.

CSUB's Loni Burton took the 100 freestyle for the women. It was Burton's fourth individual title at the meet. A duo from Truman placed second and third, with Diana Betsworth and Sarah Dance finishing right behind Burton, respectively.

Alexis Perdomo chalked-up another win for the Drury men, taking the 200 backstroke title in 1:49.03. Kelli Dudley of Truman won the event in 2:00.53.

The third Drury win for the men came when Ben Labowitch scored a victory in the 200 breaststroke. Rosanna Selurgio of UC-San Diego won the event for the women, helping her squad to a tie for third in the team standings.

The final two relays, the 400 freestyle relays, went to the West Chester men and the Truman women. The Truman team of Liz Hug, Sara Hatcher, Diana Betsworth and Sarah Dance etched a new meet record of 3:22.82.
